(C) Write a story 'A king and his justice'

A king was known for his justice. One day, two women came to his court. They were fighting over a child. Each was claiming the child to be her own son.

The king listened to them carefully and ordered to cut the child into two and give one half to each woman. One woman cried, "This is not my child, give it to the other woman."

The king announced, "She is the real mother. She cannot see harm to her son". He ordered to give the child to that woman.
